Am I That Bad

I sit in the car watch the rain on the window
I'm waiting for the call that says come home now time for bed
And I don't want to go 'cause I'm alone now
Sitting with my head
And all the times I let it go now
Are in my head

Am I that bad

I've got time to ponder sitting here with my temper
No hurry to dismiss what you did
And get on with what's next
I lived on the fog line
Tied to the never-ending gloom
With one foot kicking down the door
I had a T shirt with a smile
That was good enough for you

Am I that bad

Am I that bad

Did I go out of my way to make you miserable
How can you say it
I think of you all day
You're impossible to please
Now I can't wait to get away

An afternoon champagne might make me feel like in the mood to try again
But after afternoon champagne your time has flown
And I am there to blame

Am I that bad

I missed a deadline had to prove my mind was sane
'til I did you a favor I'm your savior for the day
Then I'll spill a coffee you're embarrassed wish I'd go away

Am I that bad

Am I that bad

Did I go out of my way to make you miserable
How can you say it
I think of you all day
You're impossible to please
Now I can't wait to get away

I carried flowers to the altar every May Get my back if I falter when I drive away

Am I that bad

Am I that bad

Did I go out of my way to make you miserable today
Am I that bad
